Dining: With more than 500 restaurants, there is a broad range of cuisines served in a variety of environments ranging from outdoor cafes and quaint cottages to elegant trattorias and fine dining rooms. Pasadena is also known for its nightlife scene, where pub crawlers haunt places like Ice House Comedy Club, Kings Row Gastropub, Lucky Baldwin's, Vertical Wine Bistro, Red White+Bluezz, and a variety of cinemas, bars, jazz and dance clubs.

The Districts: Reminiscent of a refined collection of European villages with modern conveniences and an urban sophistication, Pasadena offers three distinct districts:

- Old Pasadena is nationally recognized for its vibrant main street revitalization. Spanning 22 blocks of historic streets and alleyways, Old Pasadena reflects the traditions of early California, blending more than 200 retail stores, art galleries, trendy boutiques, vintage clothing stores, theaters and restaurants.
- Lake Avenue is home to upscale boutiques, designer stores and eateries. This active business community and bustling retail center features Macy's, Anthropology and Orvis alongside diverse eateries such as Smitty's and Pie & Burger, a Pasadena institution since 1963.
- The Pasadena Playhouse District, named for the legendary Pasadena Playhouse still operating today, is an eclectic mix of art, theatre and literature, all enhanced with 1920s architecture. Visit Vroman's Bookstore, the oldest independent bookstore in Southern California, or stop in and smell the roses at Jacob Maarse, one of the area's premier florists. Witness a creatively daring presentation of drama and music in one of the intimate, state-of-the-art settings at Boston Court Theatre, known for its special emphasis on nurturing new talent.

- Things to do:
- Blending historic and contemporary architecture, One Colorado is a single city block bursting with abundant shopping, dining and entertainment options. One of the city's most popular gathering spots, One Colorado features eight restaurants, 25 unique one-of-a-kind retail shops, and endless entertainment, with outdoor film festivals, live music, art installations and children's arts and crafts.
 - Paseo Colorado spans three city blocks at the heart of Pasadena's downtown Civic Center. It is a bustling open-air urban village with lush promenades, 65 street-front retail shops and an impressive collection of acclaimed restaurants.
 - Pasadena Antique Center is known as "antique collector's heaven," with more than 120 eclectic stores carrying antiques from all periods and styles.
 - The Rose Bowl Flea Market, "the granddaddy of all flea markets," is located at the Rose Bowl Stadium, northwest of downtown Pasadena. Held the second Sunday of every month, the flea market attracts more than 2,200 vendors with over a million items for sale, ranging from household necessities to fine antiques...a treasure hunter's dream.
